

Here Are Kelly Swanson's Tips To Help You Out Of That Pothole In The Yellow Brick Road. "See!, Believe!, Do!, & Trust The Cape!"

1- See -See Where you need to go!

2- Believe -Believe that you can get there!

3- Do -Do it!

4- Trust The Cape -Kelly tells the story of her son, then 6 yrs old, who ran down the hallway and stood up on the kitchen chair, dressed in his cowboy boots and his favorite cape crafted from a bed sheet and a safety pin, who exclaimed "Momma..Today I'm Superman and now I'm gonna fly!" After reprimanding him for the 100th time that day that "we don't play on furniture...you know that it's not safe,." he looked her in the eyes with the wisdom words can't weigh and responded "but Momma, sometimes there are days when you've just got to Trust The Cape". Words from the mouths of babes, how true they are.
